Tour Travelling to Wellington

With transfers from home this morning, we meet in Wellington where we begin our art adventure at Parliament. Led by the Art Curator, this is a unique exploration of parliament buildings, focussing on the artwork and objects that enhance their walls. We then move on to the Museum of New Zealand Te Papa. Here we go behind the scenes to experience an exclusive front and back of house tour. Our hosts will guide us through important works from the NZ National Art Collection, connecting us with pieces that showcase the diversity and innovation of art in New Zealand. We will have time to grab lunch at Te Papa (own cost and choice). We then check in to our hotel, the QT Wellington, described as “an art gallery you can stay in”. We have time to settle in and explore the artworks in the public areas of the hotel before dining in the hotel restaurant this evening.

Day 2 Tuesday, 18 August 2026

Tour Wellington Art Scene

Today we immerse ourselves in Wellington’s diverse arts community. Our first visit is an architectural journey to discover the newly reopened and reimagined Wellington City Library, where at its heart is te taiao – the natural world. You will see it in the forms of nikau palms, the colours and textures of native plant life, the shapes of carved handles and other details, along with the names of each level. The library is also home to some significant art works. Next, we visit Te Pataka Toi Adam Art Gallery at Victoria University. This art collection is a nationally significant compilation of more than 600 modern and contemporary art works by some of the best-known artists in New Zealand.

We’ll take a break for lunch in the city (own cost and choice) before visiting the New Zealand Portrait gallery on Wellington’s waterfront. A short visit and talk will reveal the story of New Zealanders through portraits. Finally today we visit Page Gallery to view the John Walsh and Sacha Lees exhibitions over drinks and nibbles. Gallery owner Marcia Page will join us to talk about her art journey. Returning to our hotel, we dine in again this evening.

Day 3 Wednesday, 19 August 2026

Tour Wellington to Whanganui

Departing Wellington this morning, our first visit today is Pataka Art Museum in Porirua where we enjoy a guided tour of the Neil Penman Exhibition along with a peek behind the scenes with the gallery's lead curator. Travelling to Waikanae, we visit Toi Mahara, an excellent regional gallery and creative heart for the Kapiti District. We are welcomed for light refreshments, and our focus today is the Field Collection consisting of 44 works – predominantly paintings by Frances Hodgkins, and an exhibition by Brent Wong, one of NZ's most distinctive and enduring artists. Lunch is in Waikanae (own choice and cost).

Continuing on to Whanganui, we visit St Pauls Anglican Memorial Church. Walking through the doors of this small, modest looking church reveals the taonga (treasures) within. This is one of the most beautifully decorated churches in NZ, adorned with intricate carvings and tukutuku, reflecting the history of the church and the area. Finally, we check in to our accommodation where we enjoy inhouse dining this evening.

With a guide, we visit works from the permanent collection along with current exhibitions. We'll enjoy lunch at the Gallery Café (own choice and cost) after our tour.

Keep your eye out as we travel around the city, there will be opportunities to glimpse Whanganui Walls – some of the vibrant street art that adorns and enlivens many building walls throughout the city.

This afternoon we visit the New Zealand Glassworks, where we may view talented glass artists at work as they craft unique pieces, while in the gallery we'll discover a beautiful selection of handmade glass homewares, artwork and jewellery. Our last visit today is Quartz Museum of Studio Ceramics opened in 2015 by Rick Rudd, a renowned studio potter. We may meet Rick today, as we enjoy browsing the collection. Tour The Morgans Art Park and Travelling Home

Our art adventure is almost at an end, but we have one more very special experience awaiting us. As we travel around the park, we stop at each sculpture to allow us to take photos and learn the story behind its conception and creation. Keeping you healthy and safe while aboard with Tranzit Tours

The health, safety and wellbeing of our passengers and team members is our highest priority and we are obliged to take all practicable risk measures to operate safely.

As a company, Tranzit Tours will always take advice from the Ministry of Health on best practice safety protocols for all contagious conditions, (colds, flu, Covid, shingles, measles, diarrhoea and vomiting etc.) along with accidents and other health concerns, and feelings of unwellness.

We always encourage our passengers to talk to us if they have any questions regarding their mobility, fitness or health.

Our health and safety measures include:

- Recommending all passengers take out comprehensive travel insurance with cover for contagious conditions (like colds, flu, Covid, shingles, measles, diarrhoea and vomiting etc) and that passengers familiarise themselves with any limitations the insurance may have around additional costs associated with the requirement to leave a tour or need to cancel.
- We encourage all passengers to stay home if you are experiencing symptoms of contagious conditions (like colds, flu, Covid, shingles, measles, diarrhoea and vomiting etc).
- Asking passengers and Tour Team to pro-actively undergo a self-administered RAT prior to departure for their safety (and the safety of all passengers on the tour) should they feel they could have been put at risk of contracting COVID-19 or feel unwell (including hay fever, cold and flu-like symptoms). If in doubt, we ask passengers to call the Tranzit Tours Team.
- Passengers who are at higher risk (ie immuno-compromised, suffer from chronic conditions such as COPD etc) are asked to voluntarily make the Tours Team aware of their condition at the time of booking. Also contact your Medical Practitioner to confirm you are well enough to join the tour. This will enable us to consider any additional precautions for you, before traveling, as well as having a plan for an appropriate response if a traveller becomes ill with an infectious illness on a tour.
- Encouraging passengers to wash hands regularly in warm soapy water and use provided hand sanitizer.
- Advising passengers to cough or sneeze into tissues and then immediately dispose of them followed by washing and drying or sanitising your hands. If caught short, we recommend using the inside corner of an elbow to cover your mouth and nose when coughing or sneezing.
- Ensuring that prior to our tour's departure, the coach undergoes a deep clean (including the air-conditioning filters).
- All hard surfaces are cleaned daily with a disinfectant while on tour.
- Providing biodegradable disposable cups on tour to prevent cross contamination.
- Using tongs for food handling, and washing and drying hands before any food handling. Always wash and dry hands after using bathroom facilities.
- Disposable masks: we encourage passengers to bring their own masks. While it is not compulsory for passengers to wear masks on a coach tour, we do encourage it if you are showing any cold or flu-like symptoms.
- Ensuring our team is fully trained in first aid.

If you become unwell or have an accident while on tour, please contact your Tranzit Tours driver or guide immediately.

They can help support you and contact Healthline on 0800 611 116 or your doctor, immediately who will triage symptoms over the phone and advise next steps. This will be managed on a case-by-case basis. Our Tranzit team will support you and assist with logistics (at the cost of the Passenger – which may be covered by your travel insurance).

Thank you for understanding as we continue to work to keep you, our valued passengers, safe. Our team is always happy to answer any specific questions you have.
