Trip Details

Day 1 Tuesday, 5 November 2024

Tour South Taranaki Gardens

We will pick you up from home this morning before departing on our Taranaki adventure, meeting in Palmerston North for a welcome morning tea at a local café (inclusive). Our first garden is Glascroft, a coastal Patea property bounded by stately Pohutukawas and featuring 12 individual garden rooms. Rhododendrons and roses are in abundance. A perfect place for picnickers and where we will enjoy our lunch today (picnic lunch provided). Our next stop is Hawera, where we find Christensen Garden, a semi-formal garden using many different hedging varieties, espaliered fruit trees and manicured lawns. The garden is dotted with rustic garden art, including birdhouses created by the owner, and there is garden art for sale.

Our final garden today is Beechwoods at Tariki. Named after two ancient New Zealand beech trees which are uncommon in Taranaki, this enchanting garden embraces the past and present. Several other large specimen trees remain from the original landscape plan for the garden, which form a backbone for the rejuvenated woodland and ornamental plantings.

We then make our way to our New Plymouth hotel, where we have time to settle in before dining in the hotel restaurant this evening.

Day 2 Wednesday, 6 November 2024

Tour Northern Gardens

Today we are off to discover the spectacular gardens of Bell Block, Waitara and Lepperton. Our first visit this morning is Riverlea, a large garden flowing around a restored 120 year old villa. You'll find a perennial border, woodland garden and a maple walk leading to a secluded riverside spot surrounded by natives.

Moving on, we visit the Galleys, where the owners have transformed a mature garden by planting ferns, bromeliads and natives to give it a modern twist. Follow the meandering paths through the woodland, and don't miss the potager patch with espaliered fruit trees and an antique water feature. Next up is Waiongana Gardens. You'll be wowed by this 4ha garden bounded by the Waiongana River - it has many varied spaces, including a sunken garden, rose garden, redwoods, native river walk, log walls and herbaceous peonies that usually flower during the festival. Find the perfect spot to enjoy your lunch, supplied by onsite caterers today (included).

After lunch we visit Tropics on Mangati. Packed with palms and brimming with bromeliads, this leafy paradise also adds perennials, rhododendrons, water features and garden art to the mix, and don't forget to look for the food forest. Finally today we visit Frog Lodge, the garden of former nursery owners. These plantspeople have transformed 7ha of rural farmland into a "tree garden". Conifers are a passion, along with natives, and a large lake offers a scenic backdrop. We return to our hotel for some well-earned relaxation before heading out to dinner tonight at Marbles Buffet – a New Plymouth dining institution!

Day 3

Thursday, 7 November 2024

Tour New Plymouth Gardens

Today we focus on gardens predominantly within the city. Our first up this morning is a little gem known as the Vicarage. As the name suggests, the garden surrounds the historic Te Henui Vicarage building built in 1845, and notable for its direct connection with the establishment of the Church of England in this country. The garden features a wide variety of colourful annuals and perennials that create a restful experience.

We then move on to Hurworth Country Garden, a graceful garden where expansive lawns, established trees, formal and woodland plantings surround a turn of the century villa. Saxton Sanctuary is next on our list. This is a woodland garden, created by a renowned Taranaki plantsman, whose current owners have embraced the legacy. Colour is provided by rhododendrons, azaleas, and irises, along with the intense foliage of burgundy and red maples. Today we enjoy a picnic lunch (provided) at Kahikatea Garden, an urban garden located in a secluded valley, that provides a peaceful sanctuary for native birdlife. Maples and specimen trees are interspersed with annuals, perennials and sub-tropicals, along with organic fruit and vegetables.

This afternoon we visit Pukemara, whose owner has created a garden of two halves – a flat courtyard and a hillside garden. In the courtyard, colourful annuals and perennials combine with vireyas, roses and maples, while the woodland hillside garden is a wonder of colourful rhododendrons, azaleas and hydrangeas under a canopy of mature trees. Our last visit today is Oak Valley, where massed plantings give immediate impact to this garden on the outskirts of the city. Features to note include various garden rooms, including a wedding garden and chapel, a lake and a classic car display. Returning to our hotel, there's time to relax before enjoying dinner in house again this evening.

Day 4

Friday, 8 November 2024

Tour Surf Coast Gardens

Packing our bags, today we are homeward bound, but with a couple more gardens to visit en route. We'll travel the scenic coastal highway, our first visit to Goodin Country Garden at Warea. This delightful rural garden is set amidst natural volcanic formations used as landscape elements, and features spacious lawns, abundant trees and flowering plants, roses and rhododendrons. Next up is Gravetye in Hawera, a stunning formal garden featuring a perennial border, pleached limes, roses and lavender, all accentuated by sculptures placed for dramatic effect. At King Edward Park in Hawera, we stop to enjoy our picnic lunch (provided). There is also time for a wander of this nationally significant garden, its ancestry seen in its charmingly formal design. The clipped hedges give shelter to abundant azalea, rhododendron and rose collections. Adding to the history are mature trees, a model boating pond and a 150 year old cannon. Finally we depart for Sanson where we meet connecting transfers for those travellers continuing to Wellington and Wairarapa.

Keeping you healthy and safe on our domestic Tranzit Tours

The health, safety and wellbeing of our passengers and team members is our highest priority and we are obligated to take all practicable risk measures to operate safely.

While the New Zealand Government has removed the self-isolation mandates should people contract COVID-19, the health, safety and wellbeing of our passengers while on tour with us is of utmost importance. As a company, Tranzit Group will always take advice from the Ministry of Health on best practice safety protocols for all infectious diseases, including COVID-19.

Our health and safety measures include:

- ✓ Our Tranzit Tours team undergoing Rapid Antigen Tests (RATs) the morning of the departure of the tour to eliminate any potential risk of COVID-19.
- ✓ Asking passengers to pro-actively undergo a self-administered RAT prior to departure for their safety (and the safety of all passengers on the tour) should they feel they could have been put at risk of contracting COVID-19 or feel unwell (including hayfever, cold and flu-like symptoms). If in doubt, we ask passengers to call the Tranzit Tours Team.
- ✓ Encouraging passengers to wash hands regularly in warm soapy water, use provided hand sanitizer, cough/sneeze into the inside corner of their elbows and stay clear of people who are unwell.
- ✓ Providing individual snap lock bags so each passenger can dispose of personal rubbish, including tissues and face masks.
- ✓ Ensuring that prior to our tour's departure the coach undergoes a deep clean (including the air-conditioning filters) and reminding passengers that if they are unwell, they need to stay home.
- ✓ All hard surfaces being cleaned daily with a disinfectant while on tour.
- ✓ Providing biodegradable disposable cups on tour to prevent cross contamination.
- ✓ Using tongs for food handling and our team members wearing gloves when handling food.
- ✓ Providing disposable masks, although we encourage passengers to bring their own masks. While it is not compulsory for passengers to wear masks on a coach tour, we do encourage it if you are showing any cold or flu-like symptoms.
- ✓ Some facilities may still ask people to wear a face mask. We ask you to respect their policies to protect those at higher risk.
- ✓ Ensuring our team is fully trained in first aid.

If you become unwell on tour, please contact Healthline on: 0800 611 116 or your doctor immediately who will triage symptoms over the phone and advise next steps. This may include having a COVID-19 test and then self-isolating from the tour. While not mandated, the Ministry of Health guidance is to stay at home for five days if unwell or have tested positive for COVID-19. This will be managed on a case-by-case basis. Our Tranzit team will support you and assist with logistics (at the cost of the Passenger – which may be covered by your travel insurance).

Thank you for understanding as we continue to work to keep you, our valued passengers, safe. Our team is always happy to answer any specific questions you have.
