Welcome

Greetings travellers!

Now that we are officially past the shortest day, we hope the latest edition of Tranzscript will inspire you to plan your travels to somewhere new or tick off that must-do destination. Be sure to contact us if something catches your eye.

Recently returned is our annual Midwinter tour, this year we had Hawkes Bay in our sights, where great hospitality and fine wintry weather welcomed us. As always, food and beverages featured highly, along with a dash of history and a splash of nature, including a close encounter with takahe at a sanctuary on Cape Kidnappers.

On our recent day excursions, some of us enjoyed a visit to Homewood Storeroom for a mouth-watering winter's lunch, while those in the Manawatu enjoyed lunch on the Kapiti Coast at a great coastal restaurant.

Still to come in August we've planned a "roadie" over the new Manawatu-Tararua Highway (we are looking at running it again if there is enough demand), with the World of Wearable Arts hot on its heels in October. You don't want to miss this, it is set to be bigger, brighter and more spectacular than ever before.

We look forward to hosting you on a Tranzit adventure soon.
